MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Sunday the congregation of the Christian Church will take a vote on calling Rev. R. E. Moss for another year. It is hoped the congregation will be a large one and the vote unanimous for retaining this popular young Minister.

Mr. W. L. Stickley, whose term as Superintendent of the Sunday-school of the Second M. E. Church, South, expired last Sunday, will serve refreshments to the pupils and officers of the school tonight from 7 to 10 in the Churchyard in East Second street near Wood.

Miss Estella Mae Nash, a High School graduate, has been secured to teach at Key's School-house in the county. Miss Nash is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nash of East Second street, and that she will prove her worth as a teacher in a foregone conclusion.

In behalf of myself and remaining members of the family, I desire to return sincere thanks to the kind friends and to the Lodge members who were so self-sacrificing in their attention to my father, the late Captain Jacob Miller.

J. L. MILLER.

In the published report yesterday of attendance at the Public Schools, the Seventh and Eighth Grades, taught in the High School Building by Misses Broshers and Waller respectively, were omitted. There were 23 in the former and 22 in the latter. These, added to the 501 given, bring the total attendance up to 546.

YOUNG.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young have been rejoicing since yesterday noon over the arrival of a fine son at their home in January street. This is the first born and of course they are of the opinion that this particular boy is the finest in the land. All young married people think the same, however.

TYPES WENT WRONG

As They Generally Do When They've Started That Way

A Kansas Editor is having trouble of his own. In preparing the obituary of an old resident and Civil War Veteran, the Editor wrote: "The battle-scarred veteran."

After the edition had been run off it was discovered that the line read, "The battle-scarred Veteran."

The following week the Editor wrote a correction, but somehow the compositor failed to space properly and it read, "The battle-scarred Vet ran."

Almost beyond himself with chagrin, he fired the compositor, office devil and proof-reader, and the following week made the correction himself. It read, "The bottle-scarred Veteran."

The Editor now occupies a padded cell, and the relatives of the deceased soldier are suing for libel.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

DECIDED NUISANCE

The Foul-Smelling Filth Catcher on the Pretty Esplanade

The bowl, originally intended to catch and retain the spray of water spouting from the fountain, but now used as a catch basin and dumpage for all kinds of filth, has evidently ceased to be either useful or ornamental.

In its present condition it is a nuisance and at times a stench in the nostrils of pedestrians who pass along the Esplanade.

It would be a benefaction if the Board of Health—if there be one—or the Street Commissioner or the Chief of Police or whoever has the authority, would take upon his or their self the responsibility of having it cleaned of the foul smelling accumulations.

It is customary with the City Dads to refer the matter and it generally dies of old age before action is taken in the matter, but in this instance it would be wisdom to have the matter attended to at once and thereby remove all danger of an epidemic of some kind.

DEMURRERS OVERRULED

Judge Cochran Acts in Three Damage Cases Against C. and O.

In the Federal Court at Covington yesterday Judge A. M. J. Cochran handed down three orders in respect to damage suits against the C. and O. Railway Company.

In the case of Gilbert J. Lewis the Company's demurrer to the petition on the ground that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, the Court sustained the demurrer.

Lewis was suing for $5,000 damages because of the loss of his left leg, which was cut off by a freight train he had boarded to ride to his place of work near Maysville.

In the case of Henrietta Davis's Administrator, the Court overruled the Company's demurrer. The action is for recovery of $26,000 damages for the killing of Mrs. Davis by a freight train while she was crossing the track between her house and garden in Lewis county.

The demurrer of the Company to a petition by the widow of Andrew Swice for $25,000 damages against the Company was also overruled. Mrs. Swice's husband was employed by the Company at its coal docks at Maysville and he was knocked off an elevated track by a train and in falling his neck was broken, causing his death.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Some good farms yet for sale. JOHN DULEY.

Stringent rules have been adopted by the Kentucky State Board of Health, requiring all physicians coming from other states to take an examination before practicing in Kentucky; limiting medical colleges to cities of 50,000 population or over; prohibiting any medical college from having more than one school term a year, and requiring all students who intend to enter medical college to take a preliminary examination.

GENERAL KUROPATKIN doesn't seem to be able even to conduct a masterly retreat.

WHEN the Postoffice is moved to the country the mails of today will probably become the mails of tomorrow.

THE Times-Star says a Spaniard living in Brooklyn claims to have cured himself completely of dyspepsia and lots of other things by eating nothing but grass and drinking water for a year. Now let the meat strike go on!

THE Louisville Herald grows historical. "The Democrats claim to have discovered rural free delivery. They left it, however, to the Republicans to give its benefits to the people. Spain actually discovered America, but look what she did with it!"

THE Japanese don't give General KUROPATKIN much time to cure up.

A RUSSIAN report from the Liao Yang battle says: "General ORLOFF's losses were considerable, one Regiment alone losing 1,588 men." Gee! What wonderful things those Russian Regiments must be.

KENTUCKY's 1,600 page register at the World's Fair has been filled and contains 49,000 names, of which 11,013 were written in August. This shows that a large number of Kentuckians, resident in Missouri, Kansas, Illinois and other progressive states, driven out of Kentucky by reason of mossbackism and oppressive taxation, have visited the Fair.

"LET the public eat rice," answered President DONNELLY of the Butcher Workmen, when asked what the public was going to do in the event of a meat famine; and the same day President GOMPERS of the American Federation of Labor notified DONNELLY that he would not call a meeting of the National Executive Council of the Federation to recommend general sympathetic action of Unionists throughout the land in support of the packing-house walkout. DONNELLY appears to be in the Vanderbilt class—"The public be damned!"

THE Preachers of Louisville are planning to open a battery of "religious revivals," feeling sure that course will wipe out sin and crush the law-breakers in that notoriously corrupt city. It is strange that these impractical gentlemen can never be made to understand that talk is useless unless backed by action. The enemy does not retreat from blank cartridges. Shot and shell are what drive him off the field. A thousand men and women singing and praying in a big Church at Fourth and Broadway would be a pleasing spectacle; but a single non-partisan Policeman could close a gambling-house and dive at Fifth and Green while the Preacher was giving out the Hymn.

The toad is exceedingly greedy. It feeds continuously throughout the night, and in twenty-four hours consumes a quantity of insect equal to about four times its stomach capacity.

River News

Over 20,000,000 bushels of coal loaded at Pittsburgh and it is expected there will be 40,000,000 by the time the fall rise comes.

A passenger used to go from here to New Orleans on one boat. Now it takes half a dozen boats to make the trip. The business is now done by small packets in short trades.

The first woman to make application before the Steamboat Inspectors at Evansville for license as Master and Pilot of a steamboat is Miss Verna Mae Kennedy of Bowling Green.

The engines and other mechanical outfit recovered from the wreck of the Fred Wilson will be placed on a barge and taken to Pittsburgh to be used on another boat. It is all in good condition.

The Keystone State is to be placed on the Cincinnati Marine Ways to be altered so that she will be able to navigate on a much lower stage of water. Her present draft is about twenty-eight inches. It is said almost an entire new hull will be built under her.

An old steamboat Engineer says that "no steamboat boilers ever exploded with water in them. You put plenty of water in a boiler and you can't blow it up. This talk of a boiler or set of boilers exploding with water in them is all stuff, and the Engineer who says or thinks they will blow up doesn't know his business."

Captain Reuben E. Neal, who built and ran the famous steamboat Indiana in the Louisville and New Orleans trade in the '60's, died at Buckannon, W. Va., a few days since. He was a native of Pittsburgh and was a brother of Captain J. Stut Neal, who ran on the steamer Richmond in the same trade. The latter is yet living at Indianapolis.

There is more coal at Cincinnati than was ever known to be there before at this season. Thirty-two million bushels is in the harbor in barges, enough to last the Queen City until February. There is over 150 barges loaded in the Great Kanawha river ready for shipment, and there is over three million bushels at Pittsburgh ready to start on the first rise. Coal men are not anxious to see a rise, as there is no demand for coal.

An unusual condition has existed up the Monongahela river during the last thirty days. The fog has been so heavy at night that it resembled rainfall. This has been common heretofore for a day or two at a time, but rivermen of long experience say they never knew it to last more than three days. It was necessary for passengers on the packets to raise umbrellas while sitting on the deck.

A Mukden dispatch, delayed by the Russian Censor, says part of the Russian Army coming to Mukden by wagon road is in danger of being cut off. All day and night Monday the Japanese in the hills on the East road shelled the Russian troops. In one instance the Japanese infantry attacked a large force of Russian infantry and artillery, which had taken to the hills running parallel to the Japanese, in protecting the flank of the retreating army. Troops, guns and transport are pouring into Mukden by train and road. Considerable transport was left behind. The roads are in a frightful state, owing to the heavy rain Monday. The main Russian Army rushing Northward is evacuating Mukden.

OLDEST CAR IN AMERICA

Relic of Early Railroad Kept In a Roundhouse in Massachusetts

The car that stands in the roundhouse at Plainville, Mass., is the oldest railroad coach in the United States and as such makes a pathetic appeal to all people who remember the earliest days of railroading. It recalls the days when it was admired by all the countryside as it rolled over the rails between Boston and Providence at a pace which today would be regarded as almost funeral. Today it stands neglected and forlorn, covered with the dust of many years, and enmeshed by countless cobwebs—a rusty, useless old thing in a remote corner of the roundhouse.

To the younger generation it seems almost incredible that this primitive vehicle could have been the predecessor of the magnificent Pullman of today. Its outlines suggest a stage coach rather than a railroad car, and the jolting of the crude structure was but little broken by the delicate-looking springs beneath it.

The roof of this venerable conveyance was used to accommodate passengers on days when travel was "heavy" or the weather fine. Time has made many ravages on this old coach, and to keep it from further injury it has been necessary to nail boards across the sides and over the wheels that mar the quaint effect.

In appearance it is only a handsome Mahogany Piano, such as you see in many fine homes, but with it those who are fine performers can produce a volume of harmony beyond the ordinary piano, while those who are unable to play a single note of music by simply pressing a concealed button can play the most difficult compositions of the old masters as only a Paderewski can.

According to a bulletin lately issued by the Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics of Labor, covering the year ending September 3d, 1903, the number of strikes during that period was 217,59 fewer than the year before. One hundred and thirty-three of the strikes involved 28,709 workmen, who lost an aggregate of 1,316,859 days.

According to Chinese customs returns the empire's trade in 1903, imports and exports, amounted to $346,298,624. The trade of 1894 amounted to $185,732,480. Each year since 1894, except 1900-'01, shows a steady gain. In those years there was a considerable falling off. The increase in 1902 and 1903 only partly made up for the difference.

The largest coil of rope ever seen on the Pacific coast was a towline for a big raft of piling towed recently from Portland to San Francisco. The huge coil contained 150 fathoms of cable 4 1/2 inches in diameter, weighed a little over three tons and cost in the neighborhood of $1,000. It needed to be stout and strong and perfect in every fiber, as the raft towed contained 650,000 lineal feet of piling, equal to 6,500,000 feet, lumber measure.

Richard Seddon, Premier of New Zealand, has recently been called upon to solve one of the knottiest problems of his somewhat eccentric career. This time the women got after him on the corset question. The agitators opposed to wearing these shape-molding contrivances, who were representatives of the New Zealand Natives Association, appealed to the Premier to see that a prohibitive tariff be imposed upon corsets. Mr. Seddon did not attempt to deny the injury caused to health by the garment, but suggested that the remedy lay with the women themselves.

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS COMING.
After two years correspondence it has been definitely settled that this famous play will at last be seen in our city. The Sign of the Cross has been a very strong attraction the past seven years in all the larger cities and it has been almost impossible for our local manager to secure this play as the company has never, until this present season, played one night stands. It is needless to say that the theater will be packed when this beautiful play will be presented.

At the last regular meeting of Croxton Post No. 9, G. A. R., September 3d, there were several applications for membership—one recruit for original muster and several re-instatements and transferees. Come on, boys, and let us have a good time while we stay here. The G. A. R. Reunion teaches the young patriotism and makes the old Veteran think of the past when he stood on picket down in Dixie; makes him remember when shot and shell came thick and fast; makes him think that he was one of the Grand Army that marched under Old Glory in the mud and hot sun in summer, and water, snow and ice in winter, and the monotony and routine of the camp, the blight and fatigue of the hurried march, the lonely sentinel of a dreary night—the emotions of the prison bells—the G. A. R. Reunion brings up the past in such a way that the old Vet. who is out of ranks wants in again, because he was one of them in the trying times above named.
